

Moral issue

Face recognition

Intention

People who have misbehaved while going out are banned from entering, which is enforced with facial recognition.

Explanation

It is impossible to close off the entire city center to people who have misbehaved. That is why facial recognition is used.

People with an access ban, who are recognized, are arrested and fined.

There are ambitions to tackle this nationally.